

The 87th Legislature passed House Bill 1525, which, in section 7 of the bill, included revisions to statutory regulations regarding human sexuality instruction. Among other enactments, this legislation requires a school district