monitoring, and auditing. Please refer to the General and Fiscal Guidelines on the TEA website for more information on administrative costs.

Supplement means to add to, expand, or increase. Supplant means to take the place of or replace with something else. When the supplant not supplant provision applies, the language will be included in the authorizing program statute, an amendment to the statute, or in the Program Guidelines that are published as part of the Request for Application. When the Supplement Not Supplant Provision applies to a grant program, funds for the program must be used to supplement, not supplant, federal, state, or local funds being used for similar activities. Any program activity required by state law, SBOE rules, or local policies may not be paid with these grant funds. Other funds, such as state or local funds, may not be diverted or decreased for other uses merely because of the availability of these grant funds. Grantees must maintain documentation which clearly demonstrates the supplemental nature of grant activities. For more information on supplement, not supplant, refer to the Supplement, Not Supplant Handbook under Training and Other Resources or the General and Fiscal Guidelines on the TEA website.

purposes, or $5,000. For more information on equipment, refer to the Budgeting Costs Guidance Handbook.

Formula grant entitlements may be found on the Entitlements page of the TEA website. Award amounts for other grants may be found on the TEA Grant Opportunities page in the Application and Support Information section.

The capitalization threshold is the threshold or minimum amount above which an entity capitalizes its assets.

Costs That Do Not Require Specific Approval vary for each Class/Object Code. Examples include utilities, maintenance and repair of equipment purchased with grant funds, janitorial supplies, textbooks and other reading materials, and in-state travel for employees. For more information on Costs That Do Not Require Specific Approval, refer to the Budgeting Costs Guidance Handbook.
